NEWSLETTER NO. 1 DECEMBER, 2008

December 20, 2008

Who are we?

A team of experts from Călărași (Romania), Granada (Spain), Partinico (Italy) with a lot of experience in the ongoing of educational projects. Together we have elaborated the Weblog project for supporting the migrants' integration. The project was assented to be financed by the European Commission in the Lifelong Learning Program.

Which is our goal?

Our goal is to create bridges between the Romanian citizens working in Italy or Spain and their families back home, especially the children let in the care of their grandparents or other relatives.

What will we do concretely?

We will provide to the interested persons a modern means of communication named weblog. We will realize a set of Italian and Spanish introductory lessons and another set for computer usage in the so-called Survival Kit package. We will bring free help to those who will desire to put this communication and learning instrument to a good account.
