NEWSLETTER NO. 3 DECEMBER 2009

December 21, 2009

Results are starting to come

- The Romanian team has finalised the first version of the weblog; it has been sent to the partners.
- The reservation of the domain and the first tests.
- We have the Weblog: <http://weblogformigrants.ro>
- At the beginning of October we have invited to our center the first children having their parents abroad; they have come with their tutors.
- The partners from Italy and Spain have sent us the first versions of the materials that will constitute the Survival Kit.

What happened in Granada ?

SCIENTER ESPAÑA, an institution from Granada, was the host of the third transnational meeting. Here were put into discussion the final versions of the weblog and of the Survival Kit. The Spanish partners facilitated some meetings between the project team and regional personalities responsible with the migrants' problems. Interviews with Romanian people living in Granada were made.

New openings: Invitation to WKO (Vienna's Chamber of Commerce)

AsIP-ODL Center accepted an invitation from Vienna's Chamber of Commerce, and participated with two representatives to an exchange of experience; the aim of the meeting was to stimulate the migrants' integration, project entitled Mentoring for Migrants.
